Bridal Trial & Consultation

We recommend a trial session to all our brides as this will help us establish a relationship/connection before your actual wedding day. This can also be used for your pre-wedding shoot.

At the trial we are able to;

- Become familiar with your skin tone/skin type and select the best products for your requested look
- Preview your makeup look for the day and make any necessary tweaks or changes
- Give any advice or recommendations with regards to your entire look (from hair to toe)

NB: All trials are done in-studio. However, if trial sessions have to be used for a pre-wedding shoot which requires makeup artist to come to a separate location, there will be a transportation surcharge.

FAQS

Our brides usually ask...

1. How early do I need to book?

A booking can be made anytime from 6 months before the proposed date. Bookings are done on a first come, first served basis so once a commitment is made, the slot is held for you.

2. What is airbrush makeup?

Airbrush makeup is makeup that is sprayed on the skin using an airbrush machine. It creates a flawless canvas and is water resistant. Lightweight, yet full-coverage and long lasting.

3. What safety and sanitation protocols do you have in place for your clients?

All our tools are washed and sanitised before and after each use. We only use authentic and tested makeup brands. However, feel free to let us know if you have any special concerns or reservations.
